World-Class Law Firm Essential Partner for Investors

Ljubica Ruben, founder, owner and Managing Partner

Mens Legis, founded in 1995 as Macedonia's first law firm, has developed a wide range of world-class legal services. Officially rated a top-tier law firm, Mens Legis has an exceptional track record in serving individual and corporate clients, both local and foreign.

Ljubica Ruben, founder, owner and Managing Partner, studied in the US and Europe and has a clear understanding of the needs of international investors. The firm's prestigious client list includes the Euromax Resources Group, EBRD, Matav Rt. (Hungary), RWE Energy (Germany), Sencap SA – Greece, McDonald's (US), GE Capital Aviation Services, Bombardier (Canada), Porsche AG – Germany, Chrysler LLC – USA, Fiat Group, IBM, Imperial Tobacco Group, the IFC, Siemens (Germany), Dräxлмаier Group and many more.

Mens Legis has been singled out as the best choice in Macedonia for banking, finance and mergers and acquisitions. The firm also plays an important role in upgrading Macedonia's legal environment. Ljubica Ruben points out, "We are helping to improve Macedonia's legislation, make it more business-friendly and ensure that regulations are implemented."

The Mens Legis team is characterised by a passion for excellence and a commitment to providing the highest-quality legal services for every client, every time. Ljubica Ruben notes, "We seek to ensure that our clients can benefit from our local excellence, knowledge and experience. We are determined to help our clients achieve their goals and even go beyond them. We aim to exceed our client's expectations."

Thinking outside the box

Known for its proactive approach and ability to think outside the box, Mens Legis has developed expertise in many areas, including foreign direct investments, legal due diligence, mergers and acquisitions, privatisation, competition and anti-trust legislation, industrial-property protection, capital markets, banking, taxation, public-private partnerships, investment structures, environmental law, energy, insurance, infrastructure, real estate, franchises and more.

Mens Legis has offices in Skopje and Ohrid and works with law offices in New York, London, Paris, Brussels, Dubai, Washington DC and other international locations. The firm has participated in most of the major local and cross-border transactions in Macedonia and is particularly active in due-diligence, including large due-diligence initiatives for the privatisations of state-owned companies in Macedonia's energy and telecom sectors.

For foreign investors seeking a reliable, expert legal partner in Macedonia, Mens Legis is the right choice. As Ljubica Ruben explains, "We offer transparent services which meet high international standards. We are against corruption and favouritism of any kind, and our special personalised services set us apart from other firms."
